Legal Clinic

The University of Arkansas Law School Legal Clinic was founded by then-professor Hillary Rodham Clinton in 1975 to give students hands-on skills training by representing real clients in real life legal situations, and to provide a much-needed service to the Northwest Arkansas community. Since our founding, the program has grown to encompass seven clinics handling over 900 cases a year. From juvenile defense to family law, bankruptcy to business organizations, post-conviction evidentiary review to immigration issues, students in the clinic are working to provide needed legal services to our local community and to the state of Arkansas.

The Legal Clinic includes the Civil Clinic, Federal Clinic, Immigration Clinic, Juvenile Defense Clinic, and Transactional Clinic.
