International Studies (INST)

Courses

INST 2013. Introduction to International Studies (Sp). 3 Hours.
A historical and contemporary overview of the relations and interactions between peoples across borders, between cultures and societies, states and non-state actors, governments and non-governmental organizations, and economies, both local and global.

INST 300V. Internship in International Studies (Su). 1-6 Hour.
Internship in international studies-related agency or organization, arranged by the student and/or faculty member, under the guidance of a faculty member. May be repeated for up to 6 hours of degree credit.

INST 399VH. Honors Thesis (Sp, Su, Fa). 1-6 Hour.
To be used for completing an International Studies Honors Thesis. Prerequisite: Junior standing. May be repeated for up to 6 hours of degree credit.

INST 4003. International Studies Seminar (Fa). 3 Hours.
The capstone course in international studies involves intensive study of major global trends and issues. Students choose a research project culminating in a senior thesis to meet the College writing requirement. Prerequisite: PLSC 2813 or INST 2013 or equivalent. May be repeated for up to 6 hours of degree credit.
This course is cross-listed with INST 4003H.

INST 4003H. Honors International Studies Seminar (Su, Fa). 3 Hours.
The capstone course in international studies involves intensive study of major global trends and issues. Students choose a research project culminating in a senior thesis to meet the College writing requirement. Prerequisite: PLSC 2813 or INST 2013 or equivalent.
This course is cross-listed with INST 4003.

INST 406V. Independent Study in International Studies (Irregular). 1-6 Hour.
Independent study in international studies. Arranged in agreement and under the guidance of a faculty member. May be repeated for up to 6 hours of degree credit.