The Tyson Center for Faith-Friendly Workplaces in the Sam M. Walton College of Business was established in 2009 with a grant from Tyson Foods Inc. and the Tyson Family Foundation. The Tyson Center works toward an increased understanding of faith-friendly organizational practices — those that are respectful and appreciative of the importance of employees' faith-based, spiritual, and/or religious identities (including non-religious, agnostic, and atheist identities). The center accomplishes its mission through coursework, immersive experiences, research support, and corporate outreach.
