Degrees Offered:

M.S. in Counseling (CNSLMS)

Ph.D. in Counselor Education and Supervision (CNEDPH)

Program Description: The Counselor Education and Supervision program at the University of Arkansas is committed to providing quality education and training for individuals pursuing counseling positions in a variety of settings. The M.S. and Ph.D. degrees are offered through the program. The M.S. degree in counseling offers four concentrations: Clinical Mental Health Counseling, School Counseling, Rehabilitation Counseling, and Addiction Counseling.

Common course requirements are specified for each emphasis. General requirements for M.S. and Ph.D. applicants are as specified in the Objectives, Regulations, and Degrees section of this catalog. Persons completing degrees in counselor education are eligible to apply for licensure as a Professional Counselor through the Board of Examiners in Counseling for the State of Arkansas and/or for various certifications through the State Department of Education and National Board for Certified Counselors. Persons intending to complete school counselor certification requirements for the state of Arkansas must, in addition to the master's degree, meet certain Arkansas Department of Education requirements.

The Counselor Education Program's M.S. in School Counseling, M.S. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, M.S. in Rehabilitation Counseling and Ph.D. in Counselor Education and Supervision are accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Education Programs (CACREP).

Areas of Concentration: Clinical mental health counseling, school counseling, and rehabilitation counseling.

M.S. in Counseling with Mental Health Counseling Concentration

Program Progression Expectations and Dismissal Policies

- Students must maintain a 3.0 GPA in the Counseling M.S. program. In order to qualify for Arkansas Counseling Licensure, students must earn a grade of "A" or "B" in all required courses. Should a student earn a "C" or lower in a course, the student is allowed to take the course one additional time to earn the required grade of "B" or higher to sit for licensure.
 - Clinical courses (CNED 5333, CNED 5343, and CNED 574V) must be taken at the University of Arkansas (i.e., no transfer credit allowed). Should a student earn a "C" or lower in a clinical course the student is allowed to take the course one additional time to earn the required grade of "B" or higher. Should the student not earn a grade of "B" or higher on the second attempt of the clinical course they will not be allowed to progress and will be dismissed from the program.
- Students are expected to adhere to the current American Counseling Association (ACA) Code of Ethics throughout their program of study, including during all courses and practicum and internship field experiences. In addition, students are evaluated on their adherence to the ethical code as well as on professional characteristics (PCR) outlined in the M.S. of Counseling Student Handbook. Should a student violate the ACA code of ethics or receive a negative evaluation on their PCR reviews, the student will be referred to a student remediation or retention committee depending on the severity of the violation. Students can be dismissed from the program if they fail to comply with remediation or retention committee directives. More detailed information about the process can be found in the Student Handbook at cned.uark.edu (<https://cned.uark.edu>).

- Prior to enrollment in CNED 5343 Counseling Practicum, all students must complete a Federal-level background check in order to be approved for site placement. Students are required to have a child maltreatment central registry check. Some placement sites will also require a drug screening as well. Drug screens and background checks may affect site placements, eligibility for licensure, delay students' progress toward the degree, and/or result in dismissal from the program.
