History Department Website (http://fulbright.uark.edu/departments/history/)

The Department of History offers an undergraduate major leading to a Bachelor of Arts in history as well as a minor in history.

The Department of History offers specialized study of world societies and their evolution to the present. Students may concentrate on areas such as Africa, the Middle East, Latin America, Asia, Europe, or the history of the United States. Undergraduate majors and minors prepare students for careers in government service, law, publishing, teaching, business school, diplomacy, journalism, archival management, communications, or graduate studies.

The Department of History also offers a highly competitive graduate program. Graduate faculty members direct both seminars and specialized training leading to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees.

The Department of History also offers junior and senior history majors an opportunity to secure valuable experience working in the field of history. Previous interns have worked for the Washington County Historical Society and the Arkansas Historical Association.

For requirements for advanced degrees in history, see the Graduate School Catalog (http://catalog.uark.edu/graduatecatalog/programsofstudy/historyhist/).

For information regarding departmental scholarships, visit the History Department’s scholarships page (http://fulbright.uark.edu/departments/history/undergraduate/scholarships.php).

Requirements for Departmental Honors in History: Both the College and the Departmental Honors Program in History provide undergraduates with an opportunity to carry out independent study and research under the guidance of history faculty and to participate in special honors courses, seminars, and colloquia. Admission to the Fulbright Honors Program is open to history majors with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5 in all of their courses. Honors candidates must complete a minimum of 12 credit hours in honors courses, including HIST 3973H and at least 3 but no more than 6 credit hours of HIST 3994V. Fulbright College honors students majoring in history must also complete either HIST 1113H or HUMN 1114H, and either HIST 1123H or HUMN 2114H. Also, honors candidates must complete a world language at the Intermediate II (2013) level or higher.

To complete the required thesis, honors candidates should choose a faculty thesis director as early as possible but no later than the first semester of the student’s junior year. Honors candidates must meet the college’s requirements for an honors degree. Students graduating with honors typically graduate with the distinction cum laude.
